Timing
Fellowships may begin at the start of the semester in either January 2009 or September 2009. To be considered for a fellowship that begins in January, you must already be enrolled in a graduate program at Rutgers and plan to be continuing in that program. To be considered for a fellowship that begins in September, you may either be continuing in your current Rutgers graduate program or applying to begin a Rutgers graduate program in September.
I would like to be considered for a fellowship beginning:
<input type="checkbox"/> January 2009 (Application is due December 5, 2009.)
<input type="checkbox"/> September 2009 (Application is due February 10, 2009.)
If you are a Rutgers graduate student continuing in your current program you may select both.

Permission to contact Rutgers Graduate Program

Interacting with the graduate director of the program that you will be in at the start of your fellowship will help us to process and coordinate your application. We ask your permission to contact your graduate program director and discuss information that is directly relevant to your application.

DyDAn may contact my graduate program director.

I prefer that DyDAn does not contact my graduate program director.

This fellowship requires recipients to complete a summer internship during the fellowship period and further requires commitment to spend one year employed in the homeland security workforce when the fellowship is completed. By signing below, I certify that the information that I have provided for this application is accurate to the best of my knowledge and that I understand the fellowship requirements.
